Festive Food Friday at Goat Hill Museum Store on December 18

On Friday, December 18, the Goat Hill Museum Store at the State Capitol is hosting the last Festive Food Friday. This event is a celebration of Alabama food, and includes recipe tastings and cookbook signings by Alabama authors.

This Friday will feature Shall We Gather-Recipes and Remembrances of a River Town from Trinity Episcopal Church Wetumpka (10am–3pm); Scholarly Gourmet, A Collection of Recipes from Alabama's Public Universities by the Alabama Higher Education Foundation (10am–3pm); and Cooking in Selma: During and After the Civil Rights Movement Cookbook (10am–3pm), by Bruce Holmes.

More information about this event is available at:
www.preserveala.org/currentissues.aspx.

The Goat Hill Museum Store is located inside the State Capitol and visitors should enter through the Capitol's Union Street entrance.

To protect, preserve, and interpret Alabama's historic places is the mission of the Alabama Historical Commission, the State Historic Preservation Office.
